

El proyecto de enero

Nombre: _____

We are going to make posters/reports/slideshows as a January writing project. You will be able to pick your topic this time. I want you to choose something that you want to learn about that we have not learned yet. Some examples are: parts of a car, rooms in the house, food (that we haven't learned like vegetables or seafood etc.), jobs, or whatever you want that is appropriate! Everyone needs a different topic and it must be approved before you start. If you are doing a slideshow, please share it with me before presenting. The following are requirements for the project:
