

Title I Program

School Districts that receive federal Title I program funds are required to notify parents of their district's parent involvement policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents can understand. See Fall Creek School District Board Policy 881.1 ESEA Parent Policy.